Announcement

Michael Gnewuch wins the 2012 Information-Based Complexity Prize

The recipient of the 2012 IBC Prize is Michael Gnewuch, Department of Computer Science, Christian-Albrechts-Universitaet, Kiel, Germany and School of Mathematics and Statistics, University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia. The prize consists of $3000 and a plaque, presented at the Seminar on Algorithms and Complexity for Continuous Problems at Schloss Dagstuhl, Germany, in September 2012.

This annual prize is given for outstanding contributions to information-based complexity.
